Through March 24, 2004 Lateral Thinking: Art of the 1990s
The Hood Museum of Art

The exhibition features 40 contemporary artists from North America, South America, Central America, Cuba, Africa, China, and Europe, including Matthew Barney, Vanessa Beecroft, Roman de Salvo, Zhang Huan, William Kentridge, Byron Kim, Jean Lowe, Vik Muniz, and Cindy Sherman, many of whose works have not appeared in the Upper Valley before. Drawn from the permanent collection at the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego (MCASD), Lateral Thinking promotes creative practices from around the world. This is the first exhibition in New Art Now, the Hood's year-long presentation of contemporary art.

March 5 – March 6, 2004 Dartmouth Dance Ensemble Winter Dance Concert /
Ford Evans, director / with special guest choreographers
The Moore Theater, 8pm

This culminating performance by the rigorously trained students of the Dartmouth Dance Ensemble showcases the breadth and dynamism of today's modern dance. Exuberant, evocative and diverse, this anthology of new choreography reflects contemporary trends in dance and challenges both the dancers and the audience with fresh ideas. The program includes works by guest artists Mariah Maloney, former member of the Trisha Brown Company; Amy Marshall, formerly of the Paul Taylor Dance Company; Marina Harris, two-time NEA Fellow; and Ford Evans, Dance Ensemble director

March 10, 2004 Dallas Children's Theater: And Then They Came for Me:
Remembering the World of Anne Frank
The Moore Theater, 7pm

Fifteen-year-old Anne Frank moved the world with her diary describing life in hiding from the Nazis. Her journal ended the day her family was captured; her young life ended in a concentration camp. But two of her childhood friends survived, and this poignant theater piece tells their emotional story. Mixing modern-day footage of these Holocaust survivors with live drama re-enacting their teenage years during the Nazi nightmare of persecution, this work is "a brilliantly conceived lesson in history and basic human nature...powerful and immediate" (Pittsburgh Post-Gazette). Recommended for ages 9 and up.

China and the WTO: The World Responds The Tuck School of Business

Hosted by: The Center for International Business at Tuck

This 2 day seminar will explore China's entry into the WTO. The rapid rise of China's economy in itself has affected the pattern of trade and investment not just in the Asia-Pacific region, but throughout the globe. How is the world responding to this watershed event? Do we see similar patterns across economic sectors, regions and countries? What are its implications for
